

SIDUO Post Congress Activities

We would like to offer all delegates the option of partaking in post congress activities. All travel arrangements and activities will be undertaken at the participants' expense.

Please see below for further information and contact details.

Mercat Tours

By day Edinburgh is a bustling metropolis, but at night the old buildings and narrow closes take on a more sinister air. Enter the underground vaults whose walls, it is said, have absorbed the memories of those who once lived and worked there. If walls could talk, these are the stories they would tell! The underground vaults were created in the late 18th Century, abandoned by the 1830s - and only opened again to the public in 1996. The labyrinth of corridors and chambers you visit remain unchanged from two hundred years ago. Visit this unique attraction and capture a very special moment in the evolution of this city

Edinburgh's Royal Mile is a treasure-chest of historic gems just waiting to be opened. Let the expert guides reveal to you Edinburgh's past through stories of the characters and events that make this capital city's history one of the most fascinating in the world.

Mercat Tours will offer a discount for all congress delegates and accompanying persons.

Golf at the Marriott Dalmahoy

Dalmahoy is one of Scotland's premier golfing venues, designed by the legendary James Braid in 1927. It has been the home to many prestigious golf events over the years, featuring such illustrious players as Greg Norman, Seve Ballesteros, Nick Faldo, Lee Trevino, and Colin Montgomerie.

The two 18 hole courses are situated on 1,000 acres of stunning Scottish countryside surrounded by woodlands, streams, lakes and the Pentland Hills.

Glengoyne Whisky Distillery Tours

Within easy reach from Glasgow, Loch Lomond and Edinburgh, Glengoyne scotch whisky distillery is open all year round offering the most in-depth range of visits in the industry.

Unlike most other single malts Glengoyne has been preserving the essence of its flavour for decades by using air-dried barley rather than barley dried using harsh peat smoke. The result is a more subtle, complex whisky in which all of the delicate flavours are freely allowed to express themselves.

Glengoyne is proud to offer entertaining and in-depth distillery visits including the Master Blender tour where guests create their very own blended whisky.

For further information, please visit <http://www.glengoyne.com> or contact reception@glengoyne.com, tel: +44 (0)1360 550 254.

Stirling Castle

One of Scotland's grandest castles due to its imposing position and impressive architecture, Stirling Castle commands the countryside for many miles around.

The castle towers over some of the most important battlefields of Scotland's past including Stirling Bridge, the site of William Wallace's victory over the English in 1297, and Bannockburn where Robert the Bruce defeated the same foe in the summer of 1314.
